PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henry Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

O COME, O COME, EMMANUEL

Translated by John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

15th Century French

1. O come, O come, Em-man-u-el, And ran-som cap-tive Is-ra-el,
2. O come, O come, Thou Lord of might, Who to Thy tribes, on Si-nai's height,
3. O come, Thou Rod of Jes-se, free Thine own from Sa-tan's ty-ran-ny;

That mourns in lone-ly ex-ile here Un-til the Son of God ap-pear.
In an-cient times didst give the Law, In cloud, and maj-es-ty and awe.
From depths of hell Thy peo-ple save, And give them vic-t'ry o'er the grave.

Re-joice! Re-joice! Em-man-u-el Shall come to thee, O Is-ra-el.

4. O come, Thou Key of Da-vid, come, And o-pen wide our heav'n-ly home;
5. O come, Thou Day-Spring, come and cheer Our spi-rits by Thine ad-vent here;

Make safe the way that leads on high, And close the path to mis-er-y.
Dis-perse the gloom-y clouds of night, And death's dark shad-ows put to flight.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

Edmund H. Sears (1810–1876)

Richard S. Willis (1819–1900)

1. It came up-on— the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,—
 2. Still through the clo-ven skies they come, With peace-ful wings un-furl'd;—
 3. O ye, be-neath life's crush-ing load, Whose forms are bend-ing low,—
 4. For lo! the days are hast-'ning on, By pro-phet bards fore-told,—

From an-gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:—
 And still their heav'n-ly mu-sic floats O'er all the wea-ry world:—
 Who toil a-long the climb-ing way With pain-ful steps and slow!—
 When with the ev-er-cir-cling years Comes round the age of gold;—

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men From heav'n's all gra-cious King."—
 A-bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hov-'ring wing,—
 Look now, for glad and gold-en hours Come swift-ly on the wing;—
 When Peace shall o-ver all the earth Its an-cient splen-dors fling,—

The world in sol-emn still-ness lay To hear the an-gels sing.—
 And ev-er o'er its Ba-bel sounds The bless-ed an-gels sing.—
 O rest be-side the wea-ry road And hear the an-gels sing.—
 And the whole world send back the song Which now the an-gels sing.—

THE WEXFORD CAROL

Traditional, 16th Century or earlier

Traditional

1. Good peo-ple all, this Christ-mas time, Con-sid-er well, and bear in mind,
 2. The night be-fore that hap-py tide, The no-ble Vir-gin and her guide
 3. Let all your songs and prais-es be, Un-to His Heav'n-ly Ma-je-sty;

What our good God for us has done, In send-ing His be-lov-ed Son.
 Were long time seek-ing up and down To find a lodg-ing in the town.
 And ev-er-more, a-mongst our mirth, Re-mem-ber Christ our Sav-ior's birth.

With Ma-ry ho-ly, we should pray To God with love this Christ-mas day;
 But mark how all things came to pass: From ev-'ry door re-pelled A-las!
 That night the Vir-gin Ma-ry mild, Was safe de-liv-er'd of a child;

In Beth-le-hem up-on that morn, There was a bless-ed Mes-si-ah born.
 As long fore-told their ref-uge all Was but a hum-ble ox-'s stall.
 Ac-cord-ing un-to Heav'n's de-cree, Man's sweet sal-va-tion for to be.

4. Near Beth - le - hem— did shep-herds keep Their flocks of lambs and feed-ing sheep;
 5. With thank-ful heart—and joy - ful mind, The shep-herds went the babe to find,
 6. See how the Lord— of Heav'n and earth, Show'd Him-self low - ly— in His birth;

To whom God's an - gels did ap-pear, Which put the shep-herds in great fear.
 And as God's an - gels had fore-told, They did our Sav - ior Christ be - hold.
 A sweet ex - am - ple for man-kind, To learn to bear— a hum-ble mind.

"Pre-pare and go," the an-gels said, "To Beth - le - hem. Be— not a - fraid
 With-in a man - ger He was laid, And by His side the vir - gin maid
 If quires of An - gels did re-joice, Well may man - kind with heart and voice

For there you'll find— this hap-py morn A prince-ly babe sweet Je - sus born."
 At - tend - ing on— the Lord of Life Who came to earth to end all strife.

ff Now let good Chris - tians all be - gin A ho - lier life to live,

And to re-joice and mer-ry be, For this is Christ-mas Eve.

4. Now mark the good-ness of the Lord, Which He to man-kind bore;
mf 5. Which prom-ise now is brought to pass: Chris-tians, be-lieve it well:
 6. And now the tide is nigh at hand, In which our Sav-ior came;

His mer-cy soon He did ex-tend, Lost man for to re-store:
 And by the death of God's dear Son, We are re-deemed from Hell.
 Let us re-joice and mer-ry be In keep-ing of the same;

And there-fore to re-deem our souls From death and hell and thrall, p So if we tru-ly do be-lieve, And do the thing that's right,
 Let's feed the poor and hun-gry souls. And such as do it crave;

He said His own dear Son should be The Sav-ior of us all.
 Then by His mer-its we at last Shall live in heav-en bright.
 And when we die, in heav-en we Our sure re-ward shall have.

THE TRUTH FROM ABOVE

(Herefordshire Carol)

Traditional

Traditional

1. This is the truth sent from a - bove, The truth of God, the God of love.
 2. The first thing which I do re - late Is that God did man cre - ate;
 3. Then, af - ter this, 'twas God's own choice To place them both in Pa - ra - dise,
 4. But they did eat, which was a sin, And thus their ru - in did be - gin.
 5. Thus we were heirs to end - less woes, Till God the Lord did in - ter - pose;

There - fore don't turn me from your door, But — heark - en all — both rich and poor.
 The next thing which to you I'll tell Wo - man was made with man to dwell.
 There to re - main, from e - vil free, Ex - cept they ate — of such a tree.
 Ru - ined them - selves, both you and me, And all of their pos - ter - i - ty.
 And so a prom - ise soon did run That He would re - deem us by His Son.

6. And at this sea - son of the year Our blest re - deem - er did ap - pear;
 7. Thus He in love to us be - haved, To show us how we must be saved;
 8. "Go preach the Gos - pel," now He said, "To all the na - tions that are made!
 9. O seek! O seek of God a - bove That sav - ing faith that works by love!
 10. God grant to all with - in this place True sav - ing faith, that spe - cial grace

He here did live, and here did preach, and ma - ny thou - sands He did teach.
 And if you want to know the way, Be pleased to hear what He did say:
 And he that does be - lieve in Me, From all his sins I'll set him free."
 And, if He's pleased to grant thee this, Thou'rt sure to have e - ter - nal bliss.
 Which to His peo - ple doth be - long: And thus I close my Christ - mas song.

HO! STEWARD, BID MY SERVANTS

John Mason Neale (1818–1866)

Ancient ecclesiastical pre-Reformation melody

Arranged by Charles Wood (1866–1926)

1. 'Ho! stew - ard, bid my ser - vants Go forth, and hith - er call,
 2. 'Sire, shall I bid the no - ble, That ban - quets in his state,
 3. 'Sire, shall I bid in Di - vès, For it is ve - ry plain,

For guests, my friends and neigh - bors, To sup with me in hall;
 With pur - ple and fine lin - en, With gold and sil - ver plate?
 If ye give him a ban - quet, He'll ban - quet you a - gain?

That, at this bless - ed sea - son, Which comes but once a year,
 'Nay, bid me not the no - ble, For he hath got e - now;
 'Nay, bid not hith - er Di - vès, For it shall ne'er be thus,

We may, as folk in old - en days, Re - jice, and make good cheer?
 But bring me in the coun - try man, That liv - eth by the plow?
 But go a - mong the al - ley - lanes, And fetch in La - za - rus?

4. 'Sire, shall I bid the mer - chant, That hath up - on the seas
 5. 'And where - fore must I turn me From no - ble and from rich?
 6. 'For these be they, good stew - ard, Whom God doth chief - ly choose,

His fleets of ca - ra - vel - las, And right great ar - go - sies?
 And where - fore seek the poor man, That dwells in lane and ditch?
 And these, His poor - er breth - ren, No man may dare re - fuse.

'Nay, bid me not the mer - chant, But go and fetch the clerk,
 'Man, lay to heart the rea - son, Be - cause the King of all,
 So, in this bleak De - cem - ber, Then make we best good cheer,

That with the ban - dog goes to rest, And ris - eth with the lark.
 Though rich, grew poor, for mor - tal sake. And born was in a stall.
 When, for the sake of Babe Je - su, The poor we wel - come here.

THE STORY OF THE SHEPHERD

Gongora, a Spanish Carol

Joseph Barnby (1838–1896)

 2. O ne'er could nightin-gale at dawn sa-lute the ris-ing day With sweetness like that
 3. I roused me at the piercing strain, but shrunk as from the ray Of sum-mer lightning; chiming bell, the hour of midnight told: When from the heav'ns there came a voice, and bird of song in his im-mor-tal lay: O ne'er were wood-notes heard at eve by all a-round so bright the splen-dor lay. For oh, it mas-tered sight and sense, to forms were seen to shine,— Still bright'ning as the mu-sic rose with light and love di-banks with pop-lar shade— So thrill-ing as the con-cert sweet by heav'n-ly harp-ings see that glo-ry shine,— To hear that min-strel in the clouds, who sang of Love Divine. With love di-vine the song be-gan; there shone a light se-rene:

 made; For love di-vine was in each chord, and fill'd each pause be-tween:

O, who hath heard what I have heard, or seen what I have seen? O, who hath heard what I have heard, or seen what I have seen?

4. When once the rapt-urous trance was past, that so my sense could bind,
5. I hast-en'd to a low-roofed shed, for so the An-gel bade;

I left my sheep to Him whose care breathed in the west-ern wind;
And bowed be-fore the low-ly rack where Love Di-vine was laid:

I left them, for in-stead of snow, I trod on blade and flow'r, —

The year is dy - ing in the night;
 The year is go - ing, let him go;
 Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
 Ring in the no - bler modes of life,

Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

 Ring in re - dress to all man - kind.
 With sweet - er man - ners, pu - rer laws.

The faith - less cold - ness of the times:
 The civ - ic slan - der and the spite:

 Ring in the love of truth and right,
 Ring out the thou - sand wars of old,
 Ring out the dark - ness of the land,

But ring the full - er min - strel in.
 Ring in the com - mon love of good.
 Ring in the thou - sand years of peace.
 Ring in the Christ that is to be.
