PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henry Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

Edmund H. Sears (1810-1876)

Richard S. Willis (1819-1900)

1. It came up-on—the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,
 2. Still through the clo-ven skies they come, With peace-ful wings un-furl'd;
 3. O ye, be-neath life's crush-ing load, Whose forms are bend-ing low,
 4. For lo! the days are hast-ing on, By pro-phet bards fore-told,—

From an-gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heav'n-ly mu-sic floats O'er all the wea-ry world:
 Who toil a-long the climb-ing way With pain-ful steps and slow!
 When with the ev-er-cir-cling years Comes round the age of gold;

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men From heav'n's all gra-cious King."
 A-bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hov'-ring wing,
 Look now, for glad and gold-en hours Come swift-ly on the wing;
 When Peace shall o-ver all the earth Its an-cient splen-dors fling,

The world in sol-emn still-ness lay To hear the an-gels sing.
 And ev-er o'er its Ba-bel sounds The bless-ed an-gels sing.
 O rest be-side the wea-ry road And hear the an-gels sing.
 And the whole world send back the song Which now the an-gels sing.

THE WEXFORD CAROL

Traditional, 16th Century or earlier

Traditional

1. Good peo-ple all,— this Christ-mas time, Con-sid-er well, and bear in mind,
 2. The night be - fore— that hap - py tide, The no-ble Vir - gin and her guide
 3. Let all your songs— and prais - es be, Un - to His Heav'n-ly— Ma - je - sty;

What our good God— for us has done, In send-ing His— be - lov-ed Son.
 Were long time seek - ing up and down To find a lodg - ing in the town.
 And ev - er - more,— a-mongst our mirth, Re-mem-ber Christ our Sav-ior's birth.

With Ma - ry ho - ly, we should pray To God with love this Christ-mas day;
 But mark how all things came to pass: From ev - 'ry door re - pelled A - las!
 That night the Vir - gin Ma - ry mild, Was safe de - liv - er'd of a child;

In Beth - le - hem— up - on that morn, There was a bless-ed Mes - si - ah born.
 As long fore-told— their ref - uge all Was but a hum - ble ox's stall.
 Ac - cord-ing un - to Heav'n's de - cree, Man's sweet sal - va - tion for to be.

4. Near Beth-le-hem did shep-herds keep Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep;
 5. With thankful heart and joy-ful mind, The shepherds went the babe to find,
 6. See how the Lord of Heav'n and earth, Show'd Him-self low-ly in His birth;

To whom God's an-gels did ap-pear, Which put the shep-herds in great fear.
 And as God's an-gels had fore-told, They did our Sav-ior Christ be-hold.
 A sweet ex-am-ple for man-kind, To learn to bear a hum-ble mind.

"Pre-pare and go," the an-gels said, "To Beth-le-hem. Be not a-afraid
 With-in a man-ger He was laid, And by His side the vir-gin maid
 If quires of An-gels did re-joice, Well may man-kind with heart and voice

For there you'll find this hap-py morn A prince-ly babe sweet Je-sus born."
 At-tend-ing on the Lord of Life Who came to earth to end all strife.
 Sing prais-es to the God of Heav'n, That un-to us His Son has giv'n.

 If so thou do but eat there - of, Then thou shalt sure - ly die."

 And by the death of God's dear Son, We are re-deemed from Hell.
 Let us re - joice and mer - ry be In keep-ing of the same;

I HEARD THE BELLS ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807-1882)

John Baptiste Calkin (1827-1905)

1. I heard the bells on Christ-mas Day Their old fa - mil - iar car - ols play,
 2. I thought how, as the day had come, The bel-fries of all Christen-dom
 3. And in de-spair I bowed my head, "There is no peace on earth," I said,
 4. Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: "God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
 5. Till, ring - ing, sing - ing on its way, The world re-vo-lved from night to day,

And wild and sweet the words re - peat Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 Had rolled a - long th'un - bro - ken song Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 For hate is strong, and mocks the song Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 The wrong shall fail, the right pre-vail, With peace on earth, good will to men.
 A voice, a chime, a chant sub-lime, Of peace on earth, good will to men.

But sweet Ma - ry's meek be - hav - ior Pa - tient - ly up - on the ground

To save us all from sin and thrall, When we in Sa - tan's chains were bound;
ff Yet Jew - ry land, with cru - el hand, Both first and last His pow'r de - nied;
Her Babe did place, in vile dis - grace, Where ox - en in their stalls did feed;

And shed His blood to do us good With ma - ny a purple bleed - ing wound.
mf When He was born they did Him scorn, And showed Him malice when He died.
No mid - wife mild had this sweet Child, Nor wo - man's help at moth - er's need.

4. No king-ly robes nor gold-en trea - sure Decked the birth-day of God's Son;
mf 5. Yet, as Ma - ry sat in sol - ace By our Sav-ior's cra - dle side,
 6. Now to Him that hath re-deemed us By His death on ho - ly Rood,

No pomp-ous train at all took plea - sure To the King of kings to run;
p Hosts of An-gels from God's Pal - ace, Sing-ing sweet through Heav'n so wide:
 And as sin-ners so e-steemed us, As to buy us with His Blood,

No man - the brave could Je - sus have Up - on His cra-dle cold to lie;
ff Yea, Heav'n and earth, at Je - su's birth, With sweet mel - o-dious tunes a - bound;
 Yield last - ing fame, that still the Name Of Je - sus may be hon - ored here;

No music's charms in nurse - 's arms To sing that Babe a lul - la - by.
mf And ev -'ry thing to Jew - ry's King, Through all the world gives cheer-ful sound.
 And let us say that Christmas Day Is still the best day in the year.

 5. I hast-en'd to a low-roofed shed, for so the An-gel bade;

I left my sheep to Him whose care breathed in the west-ern wind;
 And bowed be-fore the low-ly rack where Love Di-vine was laid:

I left them, for in stead of snow, I trod on blade and flow'r,
 A new-born Babe, like ten-der Lamb, with Li-on's strength there smiled;
