PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henrey Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

ADVENT
O COME, O COME, EMMANUEL

Translated by John Mason Neale (1818–1866)

15th Century French

The musical score consists of two staves of music in common time, key signature of one sharp (F#), and treble and bass clefs. The top staff begins with a forte dynamic. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The score includes seven stanzas of the hymn, followed by a concluding section.

1. O come, O come, Em - man - u - el, And ran - som cap - tive Is - ra - el,
2. O come, Thou Wis - dom from on high, Who ord - rest all things might - i - ly;

O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

Phillips Brooks (1835-1893)

Lewis H. Redner (1831-1908)

1. O lit - tle town of Beth - le - hem, How still we see thee lie!
 2. For Christ is born of Ma - ry, And gath - er'd all a - bove,
 3. How si - lent - ly, how si - lent - ly The won - drous gift is giv'n!
 4. Where chil - dren pure and hap - py Pray to the bless - ed Child,
 5. O ho - ly Child of Beth - le - hem! De - scend to us, we pray;

A - bove thy deep and dream-less sleep The si - lent stars go by;
 While mor - tals sleep, the an - gels keep Their watch of won'dring love.
 So God im - parts to hu - man hearts The bless - ings of His Heav'n.
 Where mis - e - ry cries out to Thee, Son of the mo - ther mild;
 Cast out our sin, and en - ter in, Be born in us to - day.

Yet in thy dark streets shin - eth The ev - er - last - ing Light;
 O morn - ing stars, to - geth - er Pro - claim the ho - ly birth!
 No ear may hear His com - ing, But in this world of sin;
 Where cha - ri - ty stands watch - ing And faith holds wide the door,
 We hear the Christ - mas an - gels The great glad tid - ings tell;

The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee to - night.
 And prais - es sing to God the King, And peace to men on earth!
 Where meek souls will re - ceive Him still, The dear Christ en - ters in.
 The dark night wakes, the glo - ry breaks, And Christ-mas comes once more.
 O come to us, a - bide with us, Our Lord Em - man - u - el!

THE WEXFORD CAROL

Traditional, 16th Century or earlier

Traditional

1. Good peo-ple all, this Christmas time,
2. The night be - fore that hap - py tide,
3. Let all your songs and prais - es be,

Con - sid - er well, and bear in mind,
The no - ble Vir - gin and her guide
Un - to His Heav'n - ly Ma - je - sty;

What our good God for us has done,
Were long time seek - ing up and down
And ev - er - more, a-mongst our mirth,

In send-ing His be - lov-ed Son.
To find a lodg - ing in the town.
Re-member Christ our Savior's birth.

With Ma - ry ho - ly, we should pray To God with love this Christmas day;
But mark how all things came to pass: From ev - 'ry door re - pelled A - las!
That night the Vir - gin Ma - ry mild, Was safe de - liv - er'd of a child;

In Beth-le - hem up - on that morn, There was a bless-ed Mes - si - ah born.
As long fore - told their ref - uge all Was but a hum - ble ox -'s stall.
Ac - cord-ing un - to Heav'n's de - cree, Man's sweet sal - va - tion for to be.

4. Near Beth-le - hem did shep-herds keep Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep;
 5. With thankful heart and joy - ful mind, The shepherds went the babe to find,
 6. See how the Lord of Heav'n and earth, Show'd Him-self low - ly in His birth;

To whom God's an - gels did ap-pear, Which put the shep-herds in great fear.
 And as God's an - gels had fore-told, They did our Sav - ior Christ be-hold.
 A sweet ex - am - ple for mankind, To learn to bear_ a hum-ble mind.

"Pre - pare and go," the an-gels said, "To Beth-le - hem. Be_ not a - fraid
 With - in a man - ger He was laid, And by His side the vir - gin maid
 If quires of An - gels did re-joice, Well may man - kind with heart and voice

For there you'll find this hap-py morn A princely babe sweet Je-sus born."
 At - tend - ing on the Lord of Life Who came to earth to end all strife.
 Sing prais - es to the God of Heav'n, That un - to us His Son has giv'n.

A CAROL FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

Traditional

Traditional

mf 1. The Lord at first had A - dam made Out of the dust and clay,
 2. And thus with - in the gar - den he Was set, there - in to stay;
 3. "For in the day thou shalt it touch Or dost to it come nigh,

And in his nos - trils breath - ed life, E'en as the Scrip-tures say.
 And in com - mand - ment un - to him These words the Lord did say:
 If so thou do but eat there-of, Then thou shalt sure - ly die."

p And then in E - den's Pa - ra - dise He pla - ced him to dwell,
 "The fruit which in the gar - den grows To thee shall be for meat,
 But A - dam he did take no heed Un - to that on - ly thing,

That he with - in it should re - main, To dress and keep it well.
 Ex - cept the tree in midst there - of, Of which thou shalt not eat."
 But did trans-gress God's ho - ly Law, And so was wrapt in sin.

ff Now let good Chris-tians all be - gin A ho - lier life to live,

And to rejoice and mer - ry be, For this is Christ-mas Eve.

4. Now mark the good - ness of the Lord, Which He to man-kind bore; mf 5. Which prom - ise now is brought to pass: Chris - tians, be - lieve it well:
 6. And now the tide is nigh at hand, In which our Sav - ior came;

His mer - cy soon He did ex - tend, Lost man for to re - store:
 And by the death of God's dear Son, We are re-deemed from Hell.
 Let us re - joice and mer - ry be In keep - ing of the same;

p And there - fore to re - deem our souls From death and hell and thrall,
 So if we tru - ly do be - lieve, And do the thing that's right,
 Let's feed the poor and hun - gry souls. And such as do it crave;

He said His own dear Son should be The Sav - ior of us all.
 Then by His mer - its we at last Shall live in heav - en bright.
 And when we die, in heav - en we Our sure re - ward shall have.

CHRISTMAS
SLEEP, HOLY BABE!

101

Edward Caswall (1814–1878)

John Bacchus Dykes (1823–1876)

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff uses a soprano C-clef and has a dynamic of p. The bottom staff uses a bass F-clef. Both staves begin with a measure of eighth notes followed by a short rest.

This section starts with a piano dynamic (pp) and a crescendo. The lyrics are:

1. Sleep, Ho - ly Babe! up - on Thy moth-er's breast;
2. Sleep, Ho - ly Babe! Thine An - gels watch a - round,

The wise men west-ward turn-ing;
The fold-ed flocks were ly-ing,

How came to earth, in low-ly birth,
There on-ly stood a sta-ble rude
Poor, hum-ble Child of moth-er mild,
The live-long night saw pure and bright,
Down through the air an an-gel fair

The Lord of life and glo-ry.
The heav'n-ly Babe to cov-er.

OF THE FATHER'S LOVE BEGOTTEN

Translated by John Mason Neale (1818–1866)

Divinum Mysterium, 13th Century Melody

1. Of the Fa-ther's love be - got - ten,
 2. At His Word the worlds were fram - èd;
 3. He is found in hu - man fash - ion,

Ere the worlds be - gan to be,
 He com-mand-ed; it was done:
 Death and sor - row here to know,

He is Al - pha and O - me - ga,
 Heav'n and earth and depths of o - cean
 That the race of A-dam's chil - dren

He the source, the end - ing He,
 In their three-fold or - der one;
 Doomed by law to end - less woe,

Of the things that are, that have been,
 All that grows be-neath the shin - ing
 May not henceforth die and per - ish

And that fu - ture years shall see,
 Of the moon and burn-ing sun,
 In the dread-ful gulf be - low,

Ev-er-more and ev-er - more!
 Ev-er-more and ev-er - more!
 Ev-er-more and ev-er - more!

4. O that birth for - ev - er bless - èd,
 5. This is He Whom seers in old time
 6. O ye heights of heav'n a - dore Him;

When the Vir - gin, full of grace,
 Chant-ed of with one ac-cord;
 An - gel hosts, His prais - es sing;

By the Ho - ly Ghost con - ceiv - ing,
 Whom the voi-ces of the pro - phets
 Pow'rs, do-minions, bow be - fore Him,

Bare the Sav - ior of our race; And the Babe, the world's Re - deem - er, First re - vealed His Promised in their faith - ful word; Now He shines, the long ex - pect - ed, Let cre - a - tion
 And ex - tol our God and King! Let no tongue on earth be si - lent, Ev'ry voice in sa - cred face, Evermore and ever-more! 7. Righteous judge of souls de - part - ed, praise its Lord, Evermore and ever-more! 8. Thee let old men, thee let young men, con-cert sing, Evermore and ever-more! 9. Christ, to Thee with God the Fa - ther,

Righteous King of them that live, On the Fa - ther's throne ex - alt - ed
 Thee let boys in cho - rus sing; Ma - trons, vir - gins, lit - tle maid - ens,
 And, O Ho - ly Ghost, to Thee, Hymn and chant with high thanks-giv - ing,

None in might with Thee may strive; Who at last in vengeance com - ing
 With glad voi - ces an - swer-ing: Let their guileless songs re - ech - o,
 And un-wear - ied prais - es be: Hon - or, glo - ry, and do - min - ion,

Sin - ners from Thy face shalt drive,
 And the heart its mu - sic bring,
 And e - ter - nal vic - to - ry,

Ev - er - more and ev - er - more!
 Ev - er - more and ev - er - more!
 Ev - er - more and ev - er - more!

'TWAS IN THE WINTER COLD

A Christmas Morning Hymn

Rev. Charles I. Black (1821-1896)

Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)

1. 'Twas in the win - ter cold, when earth Was de - so - late and wild,
 2. Then in the man - ger the poor beast Was pre - sent with his Lord;
mf 3. But I have not, it makes me sigh, One off - 'ring in my pow'r;
 4. Grant me Thy-self, O Sav - ior kind, The Spi - rit un - de - filed,
 5. Light of the ev - er - last - ing morn, Deep through my spi - rit shine;

dim. p

That An - gels wel-comed at His Birth The ev - er - last - ing Child.
 Then swains and pil - grims from the East Saw, won - dered, and a - dored.
f 'Tis win - ter all with me, and I Have nei - ther fruit nor flow'r.
 That I may be in heart and mind As gen - tle as a child;
 There let Thy pre - sence new - ly born Make all my be - ing Thine:

cresc. - - - - - p

From realms of ev - er bright -'ning day, And from His throne a - bove
 And I this morn would come with them This bless - ed sight to see,
 O God, O Bro - ther let me give, My worth - less self to Thee;
 That I may tread life's ar - duous ways As Thou Thy - self hast trod,
 There try me as the sil - ver, try, And cleanse my soul with care, f p rit.

He came, with hu - man kind to stay, All low - li - ness and love.
 And to the Babe of Beth - le - hem Bend low the rev -'rent knee.
 And that the years which I may live May pure and spot - less be:
 And in the might of prayer and praise Keep ev - er close to God.
 Till Thou art a - ble to de - scry Thy fault - less im - age there.

THE SON OF GOD IS BORN FOR ALL

(Geborn ist Gottes Sönelein)

Michael Praetorius (1571–1621)

Variation of Puer nobis nascitur from Piae Cantiones

Arranged by George Ratcliffe Woodward (1848–1934)

1. The Son of God is born for all At Beth-lem in a cat - tle - stall:
 2. Re-joice to - day for Je - su's sake, With - in your hearts His cra - dle make:

He li - eth in a crib full small, And wrapt in swad - dlingclothes with - al.
 A shrine, where-in the Babe may take His rest, in slum - ber or a - wake.

3. Be-neath Him set His crib, of tree; Let Hope the lit - tle mat-tress be,
 4. In bod - ies pure and un - de - fil'd Pre - pare a cham - ber for the Child:

His pil - low Faith, full fair to see, With cov - er - let of Cha - ri - ty.
 To Him give in - cense, myrrh and gold, Nor rai - ment, meat and drink with - hold.

5. Draw nigh, the Son of God to kiss, Greet Ma - ry's Child (the Lord He is)
 6. Come rock His cra - dle cheer - i - ly, As doth His moth - er, so do ye,

Up - on those love - ly lips of His: Je - sus, your hearts' de - sire and bliss.
Who nurs'd Him sweet - ly on her knee, As told it was by pro - phe - cy.

7. By, by, lul - lay be - fore Him sing; Go, wind the horn, and pluck the string,
8. Thus, Babe, I min - i - ster to Thee, E'en as Thine An - gels wait on me:

Till all the place with mu - sic ring; And bid one prayer to Christ the King.
Thy rud - dy coun - te-nance I see, And ti - ny hands outstretch'd to me.

9. Sleep, in my soul en-shrin - ed rest: Here find Thy cra - dle neat - ly drest:
10. Now chant we mer - ri - ly i - o With such as play in ór - ga - no;

For - sake me not, when sore dis - trest, Em - ma - nu - el, my Bro - ther blest.
And with the sing - ers in cho - ro Be - ne - di - cá - mus Dó - mi - no.

Soprano Solo 1. In the bleak mid - win - ter, fros - ty wind made moan, Tenor Solo 3. Enough for Him, whom Cher - ubim, Worship night and day, A

This section of the musical score features two staves. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef, both in common time with a key signature of one sharp. The vocal parts are labeled 'Soprano Solo 1.' and 'Tenor Solo 3.'. The dynamics are marked with p (piano) and mp (mezzo-piano). The vocal parts sing the lyrics provided above, while the piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with sustained chords and rhythmic patterns.

This section continues the musical score. The vocal parts are now labeled 'Earth stood hard as i - ron, Wa-ter like a stone.' and 'breast full of milk, And a manger full of hay,'. The piano accompaniment maintains its harmonic function. The dynamics change to mf (mezzo-forte), poco rall. (poco ritardando), and p a tempo (pianissimo at tempo).

This section introduces new lyrics: 'Snow on snow, In the bleak mid - win - ter Long a - go. Fall down be - fore, The ox and ass and camel, Which a - dore.' The piano accompaniment continues with its harmonic patterns. The vocal parts sing the lyrics, and the piano provides harmonic support.

This section concludes the musical score. The vocal parts sing the final lyrics: '2. Our God, Heav'n can-not hold Him, Nor_earth sus - tain; Heav'n and earth shall'. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic base throughout the section.

This section is the final part of the musical score. The vocal parts sing the concluding lyrics: '2. Our God, Heav'n can-not hold Him, Nor_earth sus - tain; Heav'n and earth shall'. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic base throughout the section.

RING OUT, WILD BELLS

Alfred Lord Tennyson (1809–1892)

Adapted from Kyrie, 12th Mass

W.A. Mozart (1756–1791)

1. Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
 2. Ring out the old, ring in the new,
 3. Ring out the grief, ring in the mind,
 4. Ring out a slow - ly - ing cause,

The fly - ing cloud, the frost - y light:
 Ring, hap - py bells a - cross the snow:
 For those that here we see no more:
 And an - cient forms of par - ty strife:

The year is dy - ing in the night;
 The year is go - ing, let him go;
 Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
 Ring in the no - bler modes of life,

Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
 Ring out the false, ring in the true.
 Ring out the re - dress, ring to the kind.
 With sweet - er man - ners, in the laws.

5. Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
 6. Ring out false pride in place and blood,
 7. Ring out old shapes of foul dis-ease:
 8. Ring in the valiant man and free,

The faith-less cold-ness of the times:
 The civ-ic slan-der and the spite:
 Ring out the nar-’wing lust of gold:
 The lar-ger heart, the kind - lier hand;

Ring out, ring out my mourn ful rhymes,
 Ring in the love of truth and right,
 Ring out the thou-sand wars of old,
 Ring out the dark-ness of the land,

But ring the full er min strel in.
 Ring in the com mon love of good.
 Ring in the thou sand years of peace.
 Ring in Christ that is to be.
