PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henrey Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

A CHILD THIS DAY IS BORN

Traditional

Traditional

1. A Child this day is born, A Child of high renown;
 2. These tidings shepherds heard Whilst watch-ing o'er their fold,
 3. Then was there with the An-gel An host in-con-ti-nent

Most wor-thy of a scep-tre, A scep-tre and a crown.
 'Twas by an An-gel un-to them That night re-vealed and told.
 Of heav-en-ly bright sol-diers, All from the high-est sent.

Glad tid-ings to all men, Glad tid-ings sing we may,
 Be-cause the King of kings Was born on Christ-mas Day.

4. They praised the Lord our God, And our ce-le-stial King:
 5. All glo-ry be to God, That sit-teth still on high,

All glo-ry be in Pa-ra-dise, This heav'n-ly host do-sing.
 With prais-es and with tri-umph great, And joy-ful mel-o-dy.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

Edmund H. Sears (1810-1876)

Richard S. Willis (1819-1900)

1. It came up - on the mid - night clear, That glo - rious song of old,
 2. Still through the clo - ven skies they come, With peace - ful wings un - furl'd;
 3. O ye, be -neath life's crush - ing load, Whose forms are bend - ing low,
 4. For lo! the days are hast -'ning on, By pro - phet bards fore - told,

From an - gels bend - ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heav'n - ly mu - sic floats O'er all the wea - ry world:
 Who toil a - long the climb - ing way With pain - ful steps and slow!
 When with the ev - er - cir - cling years Comes round the age of gold;

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men From heav'n's all gra - cious King."
 A - bove its sad and low - ly plains They bend on hov - 'ring wing,
 Look now, for glad and gold - en hours Come swift - ly on the wing;
 When Peace shall o - ver all the earth Its an - cient splen - dors fling,

The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing.
 And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds The bless - ed an - gels sing.
 O rest be - side the wea - ry road And hear the an - gels sing.
 And the whole world send back the song Which now the an - gels sing.

CHRISTMAS
THE WEXFORD CAROL

Traditional, 16th Century or earlier

Traditional

1. Good peo - ple all, this Christmas time,
2. The night be - fore that hap - py tide,
3. Let all your songs and prais - es be,

Con - sid - er well, and bear in mind,
The no - ble Vir - gin and her guide
Un - to His Heav'n - ly Ma - je - sty;

What our good God for us has done,
Were long time seek - ing up and down
And ev - er - more, a - mongst our mirth,

In send - ing His be - lov-ed Son.
To find a lodg - ing in the town.
Re - mem - ber Christ our Savior's birth.

With Ma - ry ho - ly, we should pray To God with love this Christmas day;
But mark how all things came to pass: From ev - 'ry door re - pelled A - las!
That night the Vir - gin Ma - ry mild, Was safe de - liv - er'd of a child;

In Beth - le - hem up - on that morn, There was a bless-ed Mes - si - ah born.
As long fore - told their ref - uge all Was but a hum - ble ox -'s stall.
Ac - cord - ing un - to Heav'n's de - cree, Man's sweet sal - va - tion for to be.

4. Near Beth - le - hem did shep - herds keep Their flocks of lambs and feed-ing sheep;
 5. With thank-ful heart and joy - ful mind, The shepherds went the babe to find,
 6. See how the Lord of Heav'n and earth, Show'd Him-self low - ly in His birth;

To whom God's an - gels did ap-pear, Which put the shep - herds in great fear.
 And as God's an - gels had fore-told, They did our Sav - ior Christ be - hold.
 A sweet ex - am - ple for mankind, To learn to bear a hum - ble mind.

"Pre - pare and go," the an-gels said, "To Beth - le - hem. Be not a - fraid
 With - in a man - ger He was laid, And by His side the vir - gin maid
 If quires of An - gels did re - joice, Well may man - kind with heart and voice

For there you'll find this hap - py morn A prince-ly babe sweet Je - sus born."
 At - tend - ing on the Lord of Life Who came to earth to end all strife.
 Sing prais - es to the God of Heav'n, That un - to us His Son has giv'n.

A CAROL FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

Traditional

Traditional

1. The Lord at first had A - dam made Out of the dust and clay, mf 2. And thus with - in the gar - den he Was set, there - in to stay;
 3. "For in the day thou shalt it touch Or dost to it come nigh,

And in his nos - trils breath - ed life, E'en as the Scrip - tures say.
 And in com - mand - ment un - to him These words the Lord did say:
 If so thou do but eat there - of, Then thou shalt sure - ly die."

p And then in E - den's Pa - ra - dise He pla - ced him to dwell,
 "The fruit which in the gar - den grows To thee shall be for meat,
 But A - dam he did take no heed Un - to that on - ly thing,

That he with - in it should re - main, To dress and keep it well.
 Ex - cept the tree in midst there - of, Of which thou shalt not eat."
 But did trans - gress God's ho - ly Law, And so was wrapt in sin.

ff Now let good Chris - tians all be - gin A ho - lier life to live,

And to rejoice and mer - ry be, For this is Christ-mas Eve.

27

4. Now mark the good - ness of the Lord, Which He to man-kind bore; mf 5. Which prom - ise now is brought to pass: Chris - tians, be - lieve it well:
 6. And now the tide is nigh at hand, In which our Sav - ior came;

His mer - cy soon He did ex - tend, Lost man for to re - store:
 And by the death of God's dear Son, We are re-deemed from Hell.
 Let us re - joice and mer - ry be In keep - ing of the same;

36

And there - fore to re - deem our souls From death and hell and thrall, p So if we tru - ly do be - lieve, And do the thing that's right,
 Let's feed the poor and hun - gry souls. And such as do it crave;

He said His own dear Son should be The Sav - ior of us all.
 Then by His mer - its we at last Shall live in heav - en bright.
 And when we die, in heav - en we Our sure re - ward shall have.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. The key signature is common time. The first section, 'King up - on this hay;', starts with a forte dynamic and includes lyrics in the middle. The second section, 'To sing by by, lul - lay, lul - lay; To', begins with a forte dynamic and includes lyrics in the middle. The third section, 'lul - lay, lul - lay, lul - lay, by by', starts with a crescendo dynamic and includes lyrics in the middle. The bass line provides harmonic support throughout the sections.

Then let Me rest
Upon thy breast,
And sing by by, lullay."

6. "Now tell me, sweetest Lord, I pray,
Thou art my love and dear,
How shall I nurse Thee to Thy mind,
And make Thee glad of cheer?
For all Thy will
I would fulfil,
I need no more to say;
And for all this
I will Thee kiss,
And sing by by, lullay,"

7. "My Mother dear, when time it be,
Then take Me up aloft,
And set Me up upon thy knee,
And handle Me full soft;
And in thy arm,

I HEARD THE BELLS ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807-1882)

John Baptiste Calkin (1827-1905)

1. I heard the bells on Christ-mas Day Their old fa - mil - iar car - ols play,
 2. I thought how, as the day had come, The bel-fries of all Chris - ten-dom
 3. And in de - spair I bowed my head, "There is no peace on earth," I said,
 4. Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: "God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
 5. Till, ring - ing, sing - ing on its way, The world re-volved from night to day,

And wild and sweet the words re - peat Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 Had rolled a - long th'un - bro - ken song Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 For hate is strong, and mocks the song Of peace on earth, good will to men.
 The wrong shall fail, the right pre - vail, With peace on earth, good will to men.
 A voice, a chime, a chant sub-lime, Of peace on earth, good will to men.

THERE'S A SONG IN THE AIR!

Josiah G. Holland (1819-1881)

Karl P. Harrington (1861-1953)

1. There's a song in the air!
 2. There's a tumult of joy
 3. In the light of that star
 4. We rejoice in the light,

There's a star in the sky!
 O'er the wonderful birth,
 Lie the ages impearled,
 And we echo the song

There's a mother's deep prayer
 For the Virgin's sweet Boy
 And that song from afar
 That comes down thro' the night

And a baby's low cry!
 Is the Lord of the earth.
 Has swept over the world.
 From the heaven-throng.

And the star rains its fire while the beau-ti-ful sing,
 Ay! the star rains its fire while the beau-ti-ful sing,
 Ev'-ry hearth is a-flame, and the beau-ti-ful sing,
 Ay! we shout to the love-ly e-van-gel they bring,

For the man-ger of Beth-le-hem cra-dles a King!
 For the man-ger of Beth-le-hem cra-dles a King!
 In the homes of the na-tions that Je-sus is King!
 And we greet in His cra-dle our Sav-iour and King!

CHRISTMAS
THE SUSSEX CAROL

Traditional English (17th century or earlier)

1. On Christ-mas night all Chris-tians sing To hear the news the an-gels bring.
 2. Then why should men on earth be so sad, Since our Re-deem-er made us glad?

an-gels bring: News of great joy, news of great mirth, News of our mer-ci-ful King's birth.
 made us glad? When from our sin He set us free, All for to gain our lib-er-ty.

3. When sin de-parts be-fore His grace, Then life and health come in its place,
 4. All out of dark-ness we have light, Which made the an-gels sing this night, in its place. An-gels and men with joy may sing, All for to see the new-born King.

 sing this night: "Glo-ry to God and peace to men, Now and for ev-er-more, A-men."

THE TRUTH FROM ABOVE

(Herefordshire Carol)

Traditional

Traditional

1. This is the truth sent from a - bove, The truth of God, the God of love.
 2. The first thing which I do re - late Is that God did man cre-ate;
 3. Then, af - ter this, 'twas God's own choice To place them both in Pa - ra-dise,
 4. But they did eat, which was a sin, And thus their ru - in did be-gin.
 5. Thus we were heirs to end - less woes, Till God the Lord did in - terpose;

Therefore don't turn me from your door, But heark-en all both rich and poor.
 The next thing which to you I'll tell Wo - man was made with man to dwell.
 There to re - main, from e - vil free, Ex - cept they ate of such a tree.
 Ru - ined them-selves, both you and me, And all of their pos - ter - i - ty.
 And so a prom - ise soon did run That He would re - deem us by His Son.

6. And at this sea - son of the year Our blest re - deem - er did ap - pear;
 7. Thus He in love to us be-haved, To show us how we must be saved;
 8. "Go preach the Gos - pel," now He said, "To all the na - tions that are made!
 9. O seek! O seek of God a - bove That sav - ing faith that works by love!
 10. God grant to all with - in this place True sav - ing faith, that spe - cial grace

He here did live, and here did preach, and ma - ny thou - sands He did teach.
 And if you want to know the way, Be pleased to hear what He did say:
 And he that does be - lieve in Me, From all his sins I'll set him free."
 And, if He's pleased to grant thee this, Thou'rt sure to have e - ter - nal bliss.
 Which to His peo - ple doth be - long: And thus I close my Christmas song.

CRADLE HYMN

103

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

from Repository of Sacred Music, Part Second, 1813

1. Hush, my dear, lie still and slum - ber, Ho - ly an - gels guard thy bed,
 2. How much bet - ter thou'rt at - tend - ed, Than the Son of God could be,
 3. Bless - ed babe! what glo - rious fea - tures—Spot - less fair, di - vine - ly bright!
 4. Soft, my child, I did not chide thee, Though my song may seem too hard;
 5. See the kind - er shep-herds round Him, Tell - ing won-ders from the sky!
 6. Lo, He slum - bers in His man - ger, Where the horn-ed ox - en fed:
 7. Mayst thou live to know and fear him, Trust and love him all thy days;

Heav - n'ly bless - ings with - out num - ber, Gen - tly fall - ing on thy head.
 When from Heav - en He de - scend - ed, And be - came a child like thee!
 Must He dwell with bru - tal crea - tures? How could an - gels bear the sight?
 'Tis thy mo - ther sits be - side thee, And her arms shall be thy guard.
 Where they sought Him, there they found Him, With His Vir - gin mo - ther by.
 Peace, my dar - ling; here's no dan - ger, Here's no ox a - near thy bed.
 Then go dwell for - ev - er near him, See his face and sing his praise!

Sleep, my babe; thy food and rai - ment, House and home, thy friends pro - vide;
 Soft and ea - sy is thy cra - dle, Coarse and hard thy Sav - ior lay:
 Was there noth - ing but a man - ger Curs - ed sin - ners could af - ford
 Yet to tell the shame - ful sto - ry, How His foes a - bused their King;
 See the love - ly Babe a - dress - ing; Love - ly in - fant, how He smiled!
 'Twas to save thee, child, from dy - ing, Save my dear from burn - ing flame,
 I could give thee thou - sand kiss - es, Hop - ing what I most de - sire;

All with - out thy care or pay - ment: All thy wants are well sup - plied.
 When His birth-place was a sta - ble, And His soft - est bed was hay.
 To re - ceive the heav'n-ly Stran - ger? Did they thus af - front their Lord?
 How they killed the Lord of glo - ry, Makes me an - gry while I sing.
 When He wept, the mother's bless - ing Soothed and hush'd the ho - ly Child.
 Bit - ter groans and end-less cry - ing, That thy blest Re - deem - er came.
 Not a mo - ther's fond-est wish - es Can to great - er joys a - spire.

DECK THE HALL

Traditional

16th Century Welsh Tune

1. Deck the hall with boughs of holly,
2. See the blaz-ing Yule be-fore us,
3. Fast a-way the old year pass-es,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

'Tis the sea-son to be jol-ly,
Strike the harp and join the cho-rus,
Hail the new, ye lads and lass-es,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

Don we now our gay ap-par-el;
Fol-low me in mer-ry mea-sure,
Sing we joy-ous all to-gether,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la.

Troll the an- cient Yule-tide car-ol,
While I tell of Yule-tide trea-sure,
Heed-less of the wind and weath-er,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

CHRISTMAS BELLS

(Lovely Evening)

Somewhat quickly

A musical score for a single melody line. The key signature is G major (one sharp). The time signature is common time (indicated by '4'). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The vocal line starts with a quarter note, followed by an eighth note, then a quarter note, and so on. The melody is divided into two sections: 'I.' and 'II.' The lyrics 'Oh, how lovely is the evening, is the evening, When the Christmas bells are' are written below the notes.

Oh, how love-ly is the eve-ning, is the eve-ning, When the Christmas bells are

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

1. To us is born a lit - tle Child Of Ma - ry, maid - en - mo-ther mild;
 2. Our King of Glo - ry, Him have we, The Li - on - lord of vic - to - ry:
 3. That dear, through Him, to God we be, From death de - liv - er'd and set free:
 4. Now, mas - ters all, full sweet - ly sing Ho - san - na to our Ba - by - king;

Whom An - gels laud with ser - vice sweet,
 The Fa - ther's sole - be - got - ten Son
 Our death - wounds heald by His, de - spite
 That hath but man - ger for His bed,

Let us His own poor ser - vants greet.
 Light - ning the a - ges as they run.
 That dark old Dra - gon's dead - ly bite.
 And straw where - on to lay His head.

And there - fore Fa - ther, Son, a - dore, With Ho - ly Ghost, for ev - er - more.

A CRADLE-SONG OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Translated by Rev. H.R. Bramley (1833-1917) from Latin

Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)

Allegretto non troppo.

1. The Virgin stills the crying Of Jesus, sleep-less-ly-ing;
 2. O Lamb, my love in-vit-ing, O Star, my soul de-light-ing;
 3. My Child, of Might in-dwell-ing, My Sweet, all sweets ex-cell-ing,

And sing-ing for His plea-sure, Thus calls up-on her Tre-a-sure,
 O Flow'r of mine own bear-ing, O Jew-el past com-par-ing!
 Of bliss the Foun-tain flow-ing, The Day-spring ev-er glow-ing,

10

My Dar-ling, do not weep, My Je-su, sleep!

15

4. My Joy, my Ex-ul-ta-tion, My spi-rit's Con-so-la-tion;
 5. Say, wouldst Thou heav'n-ly sweet-ness, Or love of an-sw'ring meet-ness?

My Son, my Spouse, my Bro-ther, O lis-ten to Thy Mo-ther!
 Or is fit mu-sic want-ing? Ho! An-gels, raise your chant-ing!

THE STORY OF THE SHEPHERD

Gongora, a Spanish Carol

Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)

Translated by Archdeacon Churton

 2. O ne'er could night-in - gale at dawn sa - lute the ris - ing day With
 3. I roused me at the pier - cing strain, but shrunk as from the ray Of sure than clock or chiming bell, the hour of midnight told: When from the heav'n's there sweet-ness like that bird of song in his im - mor-tal lay: O ne'er were wood - notes sum-mer lightning; all a-round so bright the splen-dor lay. For oh, it mas - tered came a voice, and forms were seen to shine, Still bright'ning as the mu - sic rose with heard at eve by banks with pop-lar shade So thrill - ing as the con-cert sweet by sight and sense, to see that glo - ry shine, To hear that minstrel in the clouds, who light and love di - vine. With love di - vine the song be - gan; there shone a light se - heav'n-ly harp-ings made; For love di - vine was in each chord, and fill'd each pause be - mien:

O, who hath heard what I have heard, or seen what I have seen?

O, who hath heard what I have heard, or seen what I have seen?

4. When once the rapturous trance was past, that so my sense could bind,
 5. I hast-en'd to a low-roofed shed, for so the An-gel bade;

I left my sheep to Him whose care breathed in the west-ern wind;
 And bowed be-fore the low-ly rack where Love Di-vine was laid:

I left them, for in stead of snow, I trod on blade and flow'r,
 A new-born Babe, like ten-der Lamb, with Li-on's strength there smiled;

And ice dis-solved in star-ry rays at morning's gra-cious hour, Re-For Li-on's strength, im-mort-al might, was in that new-born Child; That veal-ing where on earth the steps of Love Di-vine had been;

 Love Di-vine in child-like form had God for-ev-er been:

RING OUT, WILD BELLS

Alfred Lord Tennyson (1809–1892)

Adapted from Kyrie, 12th Mass

W.A. Mozart (1756–1791)

1. Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
 2. Ring out the old, ring in the new,
 3. Ring out the grief that saps the mind,
 4. Ring out a slow - ly dying cause,

The fly - ing cloud, the frost - y light:
 Ring, hap - py bells a - cross the snow:
 For those that here we see no more:
 And an - cient forms of par - ty strife:

The year is dy - ing in the night;
 The year is go - ing, let him go;
 Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
 Ring in the no - bler modes of life,

Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
 Ring out the false, ring in the true.
 Ring in re - dress to all man - kind.
 With sweet - er man - ners, pu - rer laws.

5. Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
 6. Ring out false pride in place and blood,
 7. Ring out old shapes of foul dis-ease:
 8. Ring in the valiant man and free,

21

The faith - less cold - ness of the times:
 The civ - ic slan - der and the spite:
 Ring out the nar - wing lust of the gold:
 The lar - ger heart, the kind - lier hand;

1. Should auld ac-quain-tance be for - got, And nev - er brought to mind?
 2. We twa ha'e run a - boot the braes, And pu'd the gow - ans fine;
 3. We twa ha'e sport - ed i' the burn, Frae morn - in' sun till dine,
 4. And here's a hand, my trust - y frien', And gie's a hand o' thine;

Should auld ac-quain-tance be for - got, And days of auld lang syne?
 But we've wan - der'd mon - y a wea - ry foot, Sin' auld lang syne.
 But seas be - tween us braid ba'e roared Sin' auld lang syne.
 We'll tak' a cup o' kind - ness yet, For auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne, my dear, For auld lang syne;

We'll tak' a cup o' kind - ness yet For auld lang syne.
