PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henrey Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

und H. Sears (1810-1876)

Richard S. Willis (1819-1900)

1. It came up-on the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,
 2. Still through the clo-ven skies they come, With peace-ful wings un-furl'd;
 3. O ye, be-neath life's crush-ing load, Whose forms are bend-ing low,
 4. For lo! the days are hast'-ning on, By pro-phet bards fore-told,

From an-gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heav'n-ly mu-sic floats O'er all the wea-ry world:
 Who toil a-long the climb-ing way With pain-ful steps and slow!
 When with the ev-er-cir-cling years Comes round the age of gold;

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men From heav'n's all gra-cious King."
 A-bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hov'-ring wing,
 Look now, for glad and gold-en hours Come swift-ly on the wing;
 When Peace shall o-ver all the earth Its an-cient splen-dors fling,

The world in sol-enn still-ness lay To hear the an-gels sing.
 And ev-er o'er its Ba-bel sounds The bless-ed an-gels sing.
 O rest be-side the wea-ry road And hear the an-gels sing.
 And the whole world send back the song Which now the an-gels sing.

To whom God's an - gels did ap-pear, Which put the shep - herds in great fear.
 And as God's an - gels had fore-told, They did our Sav - ior Christ be - hold.

 Here let all, Great and small, Kneel in awe and won-der.
 Live to thee, and with thee, Dy-ing shall not per-ish;

"Christ is born," their choirs are sing-ing,
 Breth-ren come; from all that grieves you.
 Love Him who with love is yearn-ing;
 But shall swell with thee for ev-er,

Till the air, Ev'-ry-where, Now with joy is ring-ing.

There's a moth-er's deep prayer
 For the Vir-gin's sweet Boy
 And that song from a-far
 That comes down thro' the night

And a ba-by's low cry!
 Is the Lord of the earth.
 Has swept o-ver the world.
 From the heav-en-ly throng.

And the star rains its fire while the beau-ti-ful sing,

 (Herefordshire Carol)

Traditional

1. This is the truth sent from a - bove, The truth of God, the God of love.
 2. The first thing which I do re - late Is that God did man cre-ate;
 3. Then, af - ter this, 'twas God's own choice To place them both in Pa - ra-dise,
 4. But they did eat, which was a sin, And thus their ru - in did be-gin.
 5. Thus we were heirs to end - less woes, Till God the Lord did in - ter-pose;

Therefore don't turn me from your door, But heark-en all both rich and poor.
 The next thing which to you I'll tell Wo - man was made with man to dwell.
 There to re - main, from e - vil free, Ex - cept they ate of such a tree.
 Ru - ined them-selves, both you and me, And all of their pos - ter - i - ty.
 And so a prom - ise soon did run That He would re - deem us by His Son.

1. And at this sea - son of the year Our blest re - deem - er did ap - pear;
 2. Thus He in love to us be-haved, To show us how we must be saved;
 3. "Go preach the Gos - pel," now He said, "To all the na - tions that are made!
 4. O seek! O seek of God a - bove That sav - ing faith that works by love!
 5. God grant to all with - in this place True sav - ing faith, that spe - cial grace

He here did live, and here did preach, and ma - ny thou - sands He did teach.
 And if you want to know the way, Be pleased to hear what He did say:
 And he that does be - lieve in Me, From all his sins I'll set him free."
 And, if He's pleased to grant thee this, Thou'rt sure to have e - ter - nal bliss.
 Which to His peo - ple doth be - long: And thus I close my Christmas song.

 Peace, my dar - ling; here's no dan - ger, Here's no ox a - near thy bed.
 Then go dwell for - ev - er near him, See his face and sing his praise!

Sleep, my babe; thy food and rai - ment, House and home, thy friends pro - vide;

 Was there noth - ing but a man - ger Curs - ed sin - ners could af - ford
 Yet to tell the shame - ful sto - ry, How His foes a - bused their King;
 See the love - ly Babe a - dress - ing; Love - ly in - fant, how He smiled!

For those that here we see no more:
And an - cient forms of par - ty strife:

The year is dy - ing in the night;
The year is go - ing, let him go;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in the no - bler modes of life,

Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
Ring out the false, ring in the true.
Ring out the old, ring in the kind.
