PREFACE

Several years ago, I found an old collection of Christmas carols on the Internet, originally published in the late 1800s, called Christmas Carols, New and Old, the music edited by Sir John Stainer and the words by Henry Ramsden Bramley. Just before Christmas 2010, I had this collection printed as a book through Lulu.com, and I enjoyed some of its more obscure carols enough that I thought I might combine them into a single volume containing Christmas carols from several different sources. So in early 2011, I set about creating such a book by simply taking pages from several old collections of Christmas music and combining them into a single volume. I thought briefly of taking the trouble of making new engravings of all the music, but it seemed an enormous task: though I had used a program called Lilypond to engrave music in the past, the amount of music I wanted to include would take many days of transcribing and proofreading, and it did not seem necessary at the time.

I had this collection ready (and in its third edition, the first edition having been merely a draft, and the second edition lacking Gaudete) in time for Christmas 2011, but after giving a few away as Christmas gifts, I decided that the book in its current form was not ideal, and worthwhile improvements could be made by making new engravings of all the music. Thus, I have taken the trouble of transcribing everything into Lilypond for this new edition. In this way, I have also been able to add nearly 60 more songs to the collection, including a handful of Advent hymns and two songs, Ring Out Wild Bells and Auld Lang Syne, in celebration of the new year, which always begins a week after Christmas. To make the book more affordable, I have published it through CreateSpace instead of Lulu, and in hopes that others may also find it useful, I have made it available for purchase on Amazon.com, where it should be easier to find.

In selecting the songs, I have tried to include all the public domain carols that are well-known, as well as those which I have found appealing. Some songs I sought out specifically, and others I had never heard before finding them in older collections while preparing the present volume, having looked through several such books, including The Cowley Carol Book (1919), The Cambridge Carol Book (1924), the aforementioned Christmas Carols, New and Old (1871), as well as the several Christmas carols found in Favorite Songs and Hymns for School and Home (1899). In a few cases I have slightly edited the music from the source arrangement, and in rarer cases I have slightly modified the text. In perhaps the rarest of cases, I have anonymously arranged a handful of the songs myself.

In ordering the songs, I have attempted to interleave the more well-known songs with those tending further toward obscurity. However, the obscure carols seemed to outnumber those I expect to be well-known, which led to a section beginning not long after the middle of the book consisting entirely of carols of relative obscurity. This is followed by a handful of carols of foreign origin, which are followed by a few more carols and part songs. However, these sections are rather nebulous and songs may occasionally seem out of place within the book.

In laying out the music, I have tried to avoid setting lyrics for additional verses too far below the music itself, because of the difficulty involved in continually glancing back and forth between the music and the words. Thus, some songs have the exact same music printed several times, sometimes with a chorus also doubled, though sometimes the chorus is given only once even when the verses are doubled.

In a few cases I have included the original foreign-language words as well as an English translation, but in other cases this was impossible, for Bramley and Stainer, while noting which texts were translations, were not so thoughtful as to include the names of the original texts, and I have only been able to find the source texts for a few of them. There are also a few foreign-language carols for which I have not included any English translation.

Brightly

f

1. Bring a torch, Jean - nette, Is - a - bel - la! Bring a torch, to the cra - dle, run! It is Je - sus, good folk of the vil - lage; Christ is born and Ma - ry's call - ing: Ah! ah! beau - ti - ful is the Moth - er; Ah! ah! beau - ti - ful is her Son!
2. Who goes there a - knock - ing so loud - ly? Who goes there a - knock - ing like that? Ope your doors, I have here on a plate Some ve - ry good cakes which I am bring - ing: Toc! toc! quick - ly your doors now o - pen; Toc! toc! Come let us make good cheer!
3. It is wrong when the Child is sleep - ing, It is wrong to talk so loud; Si - lence, all, as you gath - er a - round, Lest your noise should wak - en Je - sus: Hush! hush! see how fast He sleeps!
4. Soft - ly to the lit - tle sta - ble, Soft - ly for a mo - ment come; Look and see how charm - ing is Je - sus, How He is white, His cheeks are ros - y! Hush! hush! see how the Child is sleep - ing; Hush! hush! see how He smiles in dreams.

Though I be laid in stall,
Both lords and dukes shall worship Me,
And so shall monarchs all:
Ye shall well see
That princes three,
Shall come on the twelfth day:
Then let Me rest
Upon thy breast,
And sing by by, lullay."

6. "Now tell me, sweetest Lord, I pray,
Thou art my love and dear,
How shall I nurse Thee to Thy mind,
And make Thee glad of cheer?
For all Thy will
I would fulfil,
I need no more to say;
And for all this
I will Thee kiss,
And sing by by, lullay."

7. "My Mother dear, when time it be,
Then take Me up aloft,
And set Me up upon thy knee,
And handle Me full soft;
And in thy arm,
Thou wilt Me warm,
And keep Me night and day:
And if I weep,
And may not sleep,
Thou sing by by, lullay."

Rise Up, Shepherds, and Follow

Traditional

Spiritual

Arranged by Allen L. Richardson

1. There's a star in the East on Christmas morn, Rise up, shepherds, and follow; It - 'll lead to the place where the Sav-ior's born, Rise up, shepherds, and follow;
2. If you take good heed to the An - gels' words, Rise up, shepherds, and follow; You'll for- get your flocks, you'll for - get your herds, Rise up, shepherds, and follow.

Leave your ewes and leave your lambs, Rise up, shepherds, and follow, Leave your sheep and leave your rams, Rise up, shepherds, and follow.

Fol - low, fol-low, Rise up, shepherds, and follow; Fol-low the star of Beth-le - hem, Rise up, shepherds, and follow.

The Truth From Above

(Herefordshire Carol)

Traditional

Traditional

1. This is the truth sent from a - bove, The truth of God, the God of love.
2. The first thing which I do re - late Is that God did man cre-ate;
3. Then, af - ter this, 'twas God's own choice To place them both in Pa - ra-dise,
4. But they did eat, which was a sin, And thus their ru - in did be-gin.
5. Thus we were heirs to end - less woes, Till God the Lord did in - terpose;

Therefore don't turn me from your door, But heark-en all both rich and poor.
The next thing which to you I'll tell Wo - man was made with man to dwell.
There to re - main, from e - vil free, Ex - cept they ate of such a tree.
Ru - ined them-selves, both you and me, And all of their pos - ter - i - ty.
And so a prom - ise soon did run That He would re - deem us by His Son.

6. And at this sea - son of the year Our blest re - deem - er did ap - pear;
7. Thus He in love to us be-haved, To show us how we must be saved;
8. "Go preach the Gos - pel," now He said, "To all the na - tions that are made!
9. O seek! O seek of God a - bove That sav-ing faith that works by love!
10. God grant to all with - in this place True sav-ing faith, that spe - cial grace

He here did live, and here did preach, and ma - ny thou - sands He did teach.
And if you want to know the way, Be pleased to hear what He did say:
And he that does be - lieve in Me, From all his sins I'll set him free."
And, if He's pleased to grant thee this, Thou'rt sure to have e - ter - nal bliss.
Which to His peo - ple doth be - long: And thus I close my Christmas song.

God's dear Son

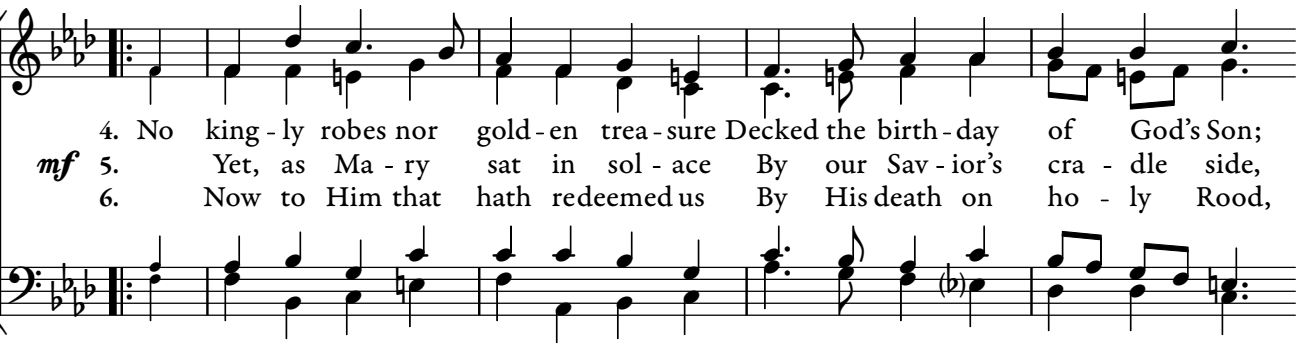

17th Century English — Traditional

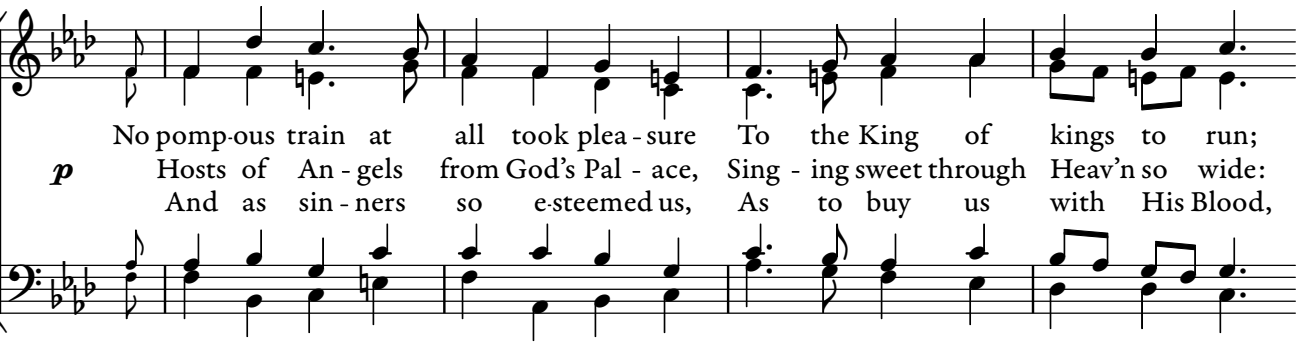

1. God's dear Son, with - out be - gin - ning, Whom the wick - ed Jews did scorn; mf 2. Beth - le - hem, King Da - vid's ci - ty, Birth-place of that Babe we find,
3. No prince - ly pal - ace for our Sav - ior In Ju - de - a could be found,

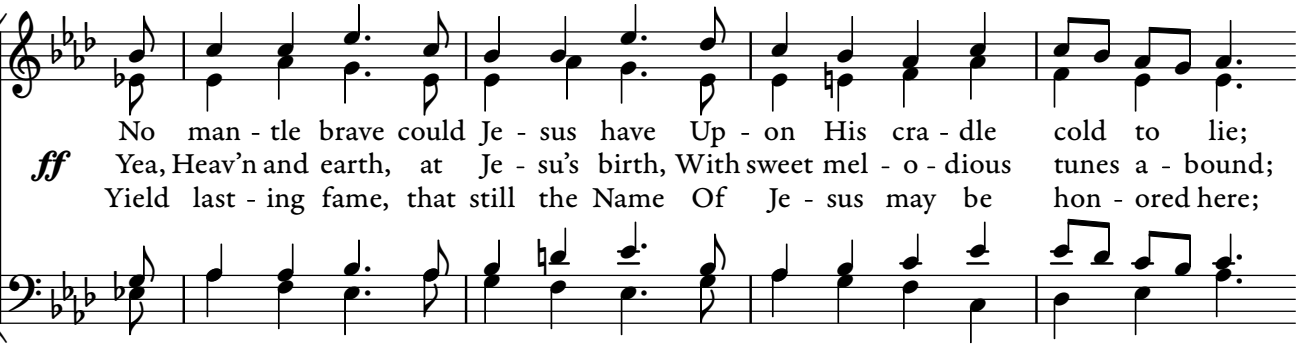

The on - ly wise, with - out all sin - ning, On this bless - ed day was born;
p God and Man en - dued with pi - ty, And the Sav - ior of man-kind:
But sweet Ma - ry's meek be - hav - ior Pa - tient - ly up - on the ground

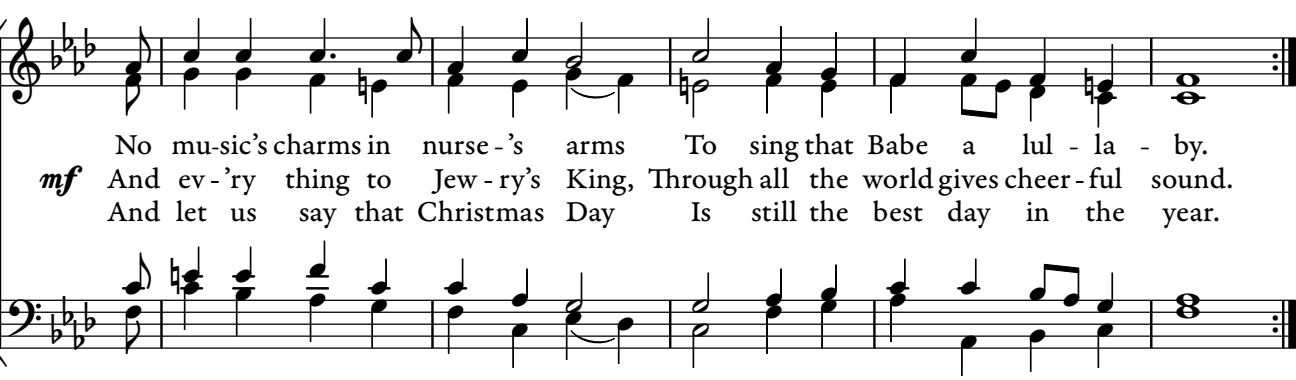

To save us all from sin and thrall, When we in Sa - tan's chains were bound;
ff Yet Jew - ry land, with cru - el hand, Both first and last His pow'r de - nied;
Her Babe did place, in vile dis - grace, Where ox - en in their stalls did feed;

And shed His blood to do us good With ma - ny a pur - ple bleed - ing wound.
mf When He was born they did Him scorn, And showed Him mal - ice when He died.
No mid-wife mild had this sweet Child, Nor wo - man's help at moth - er's need.

The Babe of Bethlehem

Traditional Traditional

1. The Babe in Beth-lem's man-ger laid, In hum-ble form so low;
mf 2. A Sav-ior! sin-ners all a-round Sing, shout the won-drous word;
3. For not to sit on Da-vid's throne With world-ly pomp and joy,

By wond'ring An-gels is sur-vey'd, Thro' all His scenes of woe.
Let ev-'ry bo-som hail the sound, A Sav-ior! Christ the Lord.
He came for sin-ners to a-tone, And Sa-tan to de-stroy.

ff No-ël, no-ël, Now sing a Sav-ior's Birth; All hail, all hail His com-ing down to earth, Who rais-es us to Heav'n!

4. To preach the Word of Life Di-vine, And feed with liv-ing Bread, mf 5. He preached, He suf-fered, bled and died, Up-lift 'twixt earth and skies;
6. Well may we sing a Sav-ior's Birth, Who need the Grace so giv'n,

To heal the sick with hand be-nign, And raise to life the dead.
In sin-ners' stead was cru-ci-fied, For sin a sac-ri-fice.
And hail His com-ing down to earth, Who rais-es us to Heav'n.

Ring Out, Wild Bells

Alfred Lord Tennyson (1809–1892)

Adapted from Kyrie, 12th Mass
W.A. Mozart (1756–1791)

5. Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
6. Ring out false pride in place and blood,
7. Ring out old shapes of foul dis - ease:
8. Ring in the val - iant man and free,
The faith - less cold - ness of the times:
The civ - ic slan - der and the spite:
Ring out the nar - 'wing lust of gold:
The lar - ger heart, the kind - lier hand;
Ring out, ring out my mourn - ful rhymes,
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring out the thou - sand wars of old,
Ring out the dark - ness of the land,
But ring the full - er min - strel in.
Ring in the com - mon love of good.
Ring in the thou - sand years of peace.
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

Auld Lang Syne
